MRS. HENRIETTA WYLIE'S HABITS. WITNESSES HEARD IN THE SUIT TO HAVE HER

ADJUDGED A DRUNKARD. trial of a suit begun on a petition to have Mrs. Henrietta Wylie, of Westchester, adjudged an habitual drunkard, was continued before Justice Dyk-man ye terday at White Plains. The petitioners in the case are William H. Harbeck and Charles H. Harbeck, her half-brothers; Sarah M. Acker and Adelaide R. Harris, her half-sisters, and her only daughter, Mrs. Henrietta Gunther, daughter-in-law of ex-Mayor Gunther. According to the statements made by Messrs. Richards and Brown, who appeared as counsel for the petitioners, Mrs. Wylie has from $7,000 to $8,000 in her own right, besides the income derived from about $30,000 more. Her counsel places her income at a much larger amount. Yesterday a number of witnesses were examined in behalf of the defendant. Samuel A. Churchill, prior to January 1, 1883, kept a store at No. 1,693 Broadway, where Mrs. Wylie used to trade when she lived in Sixty-four h-st. She generally came to the store and selected what she wanted for hertelf. He saw her three or four weeks before the trial.

He called upon her at Williamsbridge when she had hurt one of her feet with a piece of glass. The witness had seen Mrs. Wylle drink. She usually took a little brandy; he had seen her drink lager-oeer, however.

Margaret Hermann gave her testimony as follows: " I have been in the employ of Mrs. Wylie about three nths as cook in her establishment in Westchester. have often seen her greatly excited, but she managed her bousehold affairs herself. She gave me orders per-sonally as to the meals. I have seen her drink a little, very little. She is easily excited. I recollect when she went away from home. She wanted to get away from the excitement and annoyances which prevailed at the house, caused by the servants who wanted their pay. I never knew her to send any servant out for liquor."

Mark Skennion said that he had seen Mrs. Wylie under the influence of liquor three or four times in the course of two years. Mrs. Wylie had employed him to investigate the loss of some of her property. He had stayed at her house over night perhaps thirty times. George T. Leonard, of Westchester, had seen Mrs. Wylle about 100 times, but only once intoxicated. Oscar Hyatt, attached times, but only once intoxicated. Oscar Hyart, attached to Van Amburgh's circus, bad seen Mrs. Wylie about five times in the course of two years. He had seen ner drink something once at the Jerome Hotel. Michael E. Leddy, of Westchester, testifled that he had had a sister in the emp oy of Mrs. Wytie at her house. He kept a hotel and sold liquor. Mrs. Wylie would come in her carriage to his piace and ask it he had any communication to send to his sister in New-York. She would then ask for some brandy, which was taken to her in the carriage; she would drink about a teaspoonful.

Judge Dykman—That is bardly a Westchester drink. Leddy never saw Mrs. Wylie when she did not know what she was doing. Four or five times she had appeared to him to be under the influence of liquor. She talked intelligently, but acted a little more jollily when she was under the influence of liquor. He had sold her some brandy on one occasion. Hermann schoper, of No. 1,691 Broadway, this city, said that he had known Mrs. Wylie for five years. She had purchased goods at his store up to within a week or two. He had seen her half a dozen times under the influence of liquor. She would come and order what goods she thought she wanted, and then she would ask her attendant if there was anything clise wanted. The witness had sold her brandy at different times, in quart bottles. She and used a good dear of it. A liarge number of bills were shown to the witness, and he acknowledged that they were in his handwriting and that they were correct. According to these, Mrs. Wylie bad purchased on the average about a bottle of brandy a day, besides some bottles of rock and rye and other liquors.

Dr. Albert H. Crump, of Williamsbridge, testified that he nad been treating Mrs. Wylie for nervous prostration and that her reason was not in any way affected. She was excited and suffering from malaria. The case was then summed up by Martiu J. Keoga for the defendant and Mr. Richards for the petitioners. It was then submitted to he jury. The jury did not agree upo

EDWARD SCHNELL'S WIFE AND UNCLE. TESTIMONY IN THE SUIT FOR $50,000 IN THE BROOKLYN COURT.

In the suit of Edward Schnell to recover $50,000 from his maternal uncle, Frederic Blohm, as damages for the alienation of his wife's love and affecmy opinion. The supply in the country is almost used in the Suppreme Court, in Brooklyn, before Judge Cullen. The trial attracted many spectators, of whom Mrs. Schnell was one of the most interested. The first witness was am et Price, a bootbiack and private messenger in the Twenty-ninth Precinct Police Station in this city. He told how he engaged in amateur detective work, following the eiderly Mr. Blohm and his youthful niece by marriage, in thele wanderings in Central Park. He said toat the defendant put his arm about Mrs. Schnell as they sat on the grass, and kissed her his. Mrs. Schnell's eyes twakled as sine listened to the testimony, and once or twice she smiled, while Blohm glowered at the witness. EJECTED FROM THE FIFTH AVENUE HOTEL. The suit of Mathew F. Neville against Hiram Hitchcock and Alfred B. Darling, the proprietors of the Fifth Avenue Hetel, to recover $50,000 as damages for an alleged assault, was called for trial yesterday in the Court of Common Pleas, but was adjourned until Mon-day next on the application of the plaintiff, one of whose material witnesses was said to be absent. Mr. Neville in his complaint alleges that on June 1, 1881, the defendants directed their servants to eject him from the hotel, and they did so, although he was entitled to be there and had done nothing to justify the treatment which he had received. The defendants assert that Mr. Neville was not a guest of the hotel, and was put out because he was conducting himself in a disorderly way. He conducting himself in a disorderly way. He came to the hotel with two ladies and went in through the Twenty-fourth-st. entrance, although the servant in charge told him that it was against the rules to admit ladies by that entrance. He went to the room of a person who, it is said, was already the worse for liquor, and after a time sent a waiter for some wine. The waiter got the wine at the bar and was going up stairs with it when the clerk ordered him not to do so. When Mr. Neville was told that no more liquor could be sent to the room he became very angry and violent and went down to the office, where he conducted himself in such a manner that the defendants were obliged to have him put out of the hotel in justice to their other guests.

A POINT IN FAVOR OF MR. HUTCHINSON. William J. Hutchinson a short time ago ob-

Murray asserts that he and Godward organized the society, and that it was a reed that he should manage it. Mr. Golward some time ago obtained in some way the control of the society and sent notice to the plaintiff that his services were no longer wanted. The motion for the appointment of a receiver was argued yesterday and decision was reserved.

CHICAGO, March S.—The packing houses of Armour & Co. have stopped killing hogs. The men were sent home yesterday. Beef is still being slaughtered and it is proposed to kill hogs once a week to furnish fresh meat for customers. It is said that this is the first time in the history of this concern that the making of pork has been suspended.

making of pork has been suspended.
"With hogs at their present price and the product going as cheap as it is," said P. D. Armour, " there is a loss to the packer of a dollar a hog. We are not willing to manufacture at such a loss; but this is only one consideration. The fact is that there are too few hogs and those received are poor in quality. Yesterday the Eastern shippers took all that arrived ex-

"What are the prospects as to starting up again!" "We want to keep our house going; it has been our policy to keep open even in the summer, when most of the other establishments are closed. Just so soon as we get the hogs, and the prospects for a profit improve, we shall resume killing."

The struction in the foreign exchange markets is unchanged. There is no mercantile demand for bankers absorb without trouble all the commercial bills offered. Rates for business nominally are unchanged, as follows: Bankers' bills, 48 80½ and 48 83½ for long and short sterling respectively; 5 22½ and 5.20 for frames; 94½ and 94% for reichmarks: 39¾ and 40 for guilders.

Ngw-York, March 8.

The news from the oil regions to-day was that the first day's output of the new McCalmont No. 2 well amounted to 1,400 barels. This indicates a better development than the "bulls" were willing to admit yesterday. Dispatches also were received that the Patterson well No. 2, a little north of the McCalmont, was in the sand and showing signs of developing a good supshort sterling respectively; 5.22½ and 5.20 for francs; 94¼ and 94% for reichmarks; 39¾ and 40 for guilders.

The Gov-rnors of the Bank of England at their weekly meeting to-day made no change in the bank's minimum rate for discount, and it remains at 1 per cent. During the week the bank lost £190,000 bullion on balance and the proportion of its reserve to its liabilities was reduced from 43 to 42½ per cent, against 40 3-16 per cent at this date a year ago. To-day the bank lost an additional 2340,000 bullion on balance, reported to have been witadrawn for shipment to the United States. The weekly statement of the Bank of France shows a gain of 3.400,000 francs gold and a loss of 825,000 francs gold and a loss o
